The purpose of this policy is to optimize operational and infrastructure costs while ensuring that employees have the necessary tools to perform their roles effectively. Accordingly, the company will limit the provision of external monitors and approve them only in essential and justified cases.

ii. Policy Statement

The company follows a “No External Monitor by Default” approach. External monitors will be provided only when there is a clear business, project, or medical necessity, subject to formal approvals.

iii. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, including full-time employees, interns, and contractual staff, across all departments and locations.

iv. Monitor Provision Guidelines

External monitors are not provided by default to any employee. A monitor may be issued only if it is essential for:

- Client delivery requirements
- Project-specific mandates
- Approved medical necessity
- All monitor requests must:
 - Include a written justification from the Reporting Manager
 - Receive final approval from the HR and/or Asset Manager
 - Approval is case-specific and does not set a precedent for future requests.

v. Eligibility Criteria

A request for an external monitor may be considered only under the following circumstances:

- A client or project requirement explicitly mandates dual-screen or extended display usage.
- A documented medical condition requiring a larger display, subject to HR review and management approval.
- Employees who work from the office on a full-time basis and have a clearly established business need.

vi. Non-Eligibility Criteria (Strictly Not Allowed)

External monitors will not be provided to:

- Interns
- Hybrid or fully remote employees
- Employees without a client-specific or project-mandated requirement
- Employees requesting monitors solely for convenience or personal productivity preference

9. Policy Compliance

Non-compliance with this policy may result in:

- Rejection of asset requests
- Recovery of unauthorized assets
- Disciplinary action as per company policies

viii. Policy Review

- This policy will be reviewed periodically by HR, IT/Asset Management, and Leadership to ensure alignment with operational needs and cost-efficiency goals.
